The Events/Housing Office reserves the right to prohibit the admission of a pet into Seminary apartments on the basis of size or nature. Large breed dogs are discouraged and may not be approved. No vicious animal is permitted.

Instructions to Applicant: Return this application with your housing application.

For cat owners, proof of the following must be provided.

- being spayed or neutered
- a current rabies vaccination

Photocopy appropriate documents and submit with the application.

For dog owners, proof of the following must be provided.

- being spayed or neutered
- a current rabies vaccination
- current parvo-virus and distemper vaccinations

Photocopy appropriate documents and submit with the application.

The Events/Housing office will charge an annual fee of $200 per dog/cat for extra wear and tear and extra cleaning. All damages due to pets are the responsibility of the pet owners. In addition, a $250 security deposit is required for each dog and/or cat and a $100 security deposit is required per cage/tank pet.

I agree to the above procedure and hereby state that I have complied with all regulations of the seminary's pet policy as outlined in this form and the student handbook. I further agree that if I am not found to be in compliance, it may result in the removal of the pet and possible loss of lease. I further understand that failure to comply will result in a $100 fine plus charges for the yearly fees of $200 per pet.
